For Immediate Release

On March 19th, 2018, a male wearing a bandana over his face used a firearm to rob an employee in a convenience store located on the 4000 Block of N. Tenaya Way. Undisclosed items were stolen and no persons were injured. A female/person of interest, likely related to the male suspect, was photographed on a video surveillance system a short distance away. Investigators from the LVMPD are hoping someone might have information that will lead to the identification of this female/person of interest. See attached pictures.

Person of Interest: White female, 20's or 30's, brown hair
